What is ConAP?

The Concurrent Admissions Program (ConAP) is a unique partnership between the Army Recruiting Command and more than 1,950 participating colleges who are members of Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC). SOC assists with implementation and management of the program and serves as liaison between Army recruiters, ConAP colleges, Army Education Centers, and the higher education community. ConAP goals are to increase enlistment of college-capable individuals into both the active-duty and reserve forces; increase the number of Army Soldiers, Reserve Soldiers, and veterans enrolled in college; and increase the use of GI Bill education benefits.

The program's purpose is to link Future Soldiers to a ConAP college at the time of enlistment in the Army or Army Reserve. During the enlistment process, Army and Army Reserve recruiters refer Future Soldiers to ConAP colleges, typically in their home areas. The Future Soldiers e-mail a College Referral and Intent to Enroll form to a ConAP college stating their intent to enroll during or after their enlistment. The college acknowledges the intent to enroll and sends information about the college to the Future Soldier. The ConAP form provides guidelines to Future Soldiers about applying for admission, preparing for the academic experience, beginning college work during their enlistment, and staying in touch with the college.

The intent is for Soldiers to transition directly from the Army to their ConAP college. As students, they are subject to the college's degree requirements that appear in the catalog at the time of enrollment.

Benefits of ConAP

- For Soldiers: An active plan to attend college, use GI Bill benefits, and receive credit for educational experiences in the Army.
- For High Schools: Enables more graduates to attend college by earning GI Bill and other educational benefits.

- For Colleges and Universities: Increases enrollment of mature, motivated veterans who have job, life, and leadership experience, and money for education.
- For the Army and Army Reserve: Attracts college-capable Soldiers to maintain the high standards and professionalism of the Army.

How Colleges Participate

Become a member of the Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC) Consortium and complete an institutional agreement to participate in ConAP. There is no cost for either program.

Electronic ConAP Form

The ConAP process is entirely electronic. The procedure for completing the Electronic ConAP Form is as follows:

- Recruiter and Future Soldier go to the Army Recruiting Future Soldier Web Site at www.futuresoldiers.com.
- Click on the Orientation Tab.
- Click on ConAP - I Am a Future Soldier.
- Future Soldier signs in with AKO address and password.
- Future Soldier clicks on 'State' and gets drop-down menu of all ConAP colleges in the state.
- Clicks on desired College and information about the college and college point-of-contact populate the form.
- Enter intended academic major.
- Enter expected enrollment date (month and year).
- Check accuracy of form; enter initials and click submit.

An e-mail with the ConAP form attached is sent to the ConAP point-of-contact at the selected college. The e-mail provides a link for the college to retrieve the electronic ConAP form. The point-of-contact checks the form and if satisfied, clicks a box to acknowledge the Future Soldier's intent to enroll in college during or after the enlistment.

Once the college acknowledges the form, an e-mail with the completed ConAP form attached is sent automatically to the Future Soldier. The Army Recruiter receives notification also. The form can be downloaded and printed. This completes the ConAP transaction.

Colleges: The recommended response to ConAP forms is to send a letter or an e-mail welcoming the Future Soldier as a potential student, advise about online courses, college web site, when and how to apply for admission, veteran services, veteran's organization on campus, etc.

Recruiters: Recommended actions include: congratulating the Future Soldier on making a plan to attend college and use GI Bill education benefits after military service and presenting the Future Soldier with a Recruiting Command Certificate for Successful Participation in the United States Army Concurrent Admissions Program. If the Future Soldier is still in high school, provide a copy of the ConAP form to the student's guidance counselor.

Information for Army Recruiters

Future Soldiers should apply for admission to their ConAP college not more than a year before the date they intend to enroll. High school seniors should participate in ConAP if planning to attend college at a future date. Future Soldiers can select more than one ConAP college. If the soldier selects a distant college, send another form to a local college—for two reasons:

- Many Soldiers return home after completing one enlistment and attend a local college.
- Use ConAP to build a partnership and working relationship with your local colleges.

A student that leaves college to enlist can send the same college a ConAP form to let the college know he or she intends to return. If ConAP helps a Future Soldier plan for college, use it. Recruiters can help students stay in college by enlisting in the Army Reserve. Reservists are eligible for Tuition Assistance and loan repayment programs. Recruiters can link soldier jobs to college degree programs like military police to criminal justice, food service to culinary arts, etc. Advise colleges about the March2Success Program. If a college is conducting remedial instruction for deficient students, make M2S available to the college. See:

<https://march2success.com/>

Information for ConAP Colleges

Invite your local recruiters to the college once a year. Brief them on your academic programs, costs, admissions process, and special programs for veterans, etc. Review ConAP procedures. Ask recruiters to increase the number of ConAP enlistees referred to the college.

Ask recruiters to help you contact Transition and Retention NCOs at local Army Reserve Centers. Volunteer to place college literature at the center, to speak with Soldiers interested in college programs, admission procedures, how to use GI Bill, loan repayment and Tuition Assistance education benefits. Invite interested Soldiers to campus for an orientation.

Think of Army Recruiters as extensions of your own recruiting force and treat them as such. The more they know about your college, the more likely they are to refer Future Soldiers to you, as well as veterans, family members, high school students, Reserve Soldiers, and other young men and women they meet.

Post-9/11 GI Bill (Chapter 33)

Signed into law July 1, 2008. Benefits became effective August 1, 2009, with eligibility established using active-duty service performed on or after September 10, 2001. The listed benefits and information are current as of October 1, 2012.

Benefit Determination: The benefit level determination is based upon an individual's aggregate qualifying active duty service. For individuals with maximum benefits, payments will cover full tuition and fee payments for an in-state student. Tuition and fees will be paid directly to the school. Adjustments may be made for private schools through the Yellow Ribbon Program.

Housing Allowance: You may be entitled to receive a monthly housing allowance equal to the basic allowance for housing (BAH) amount payable to an E-5 with dependents, in the same zip code as your college. The money is paid directly to you. To find your rate go to:

www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/perdiem.cfm

Books and Supplies: A yearly books and supplies stipend of up to $1,000 is authorized—paid proportionately based on enrollment.

Authorized Training: You can use your Post-9/11 GI Bill at colleges, universities, trade schools, and for on-the-job-training, apprenticeships, and flight schools. You can also use your GI Bill for tutorial assistance, licensing, and certification tests. For current information, visit:

www.gibill.va.gov/

Eligibility Period: You will be eligible for 15 years from the date you were last discharged or released from a period of active duty of at least 90 consecutive days or 30 consecutive days, if released for a service-connected disability.

Transfer of Benefits: The Department of Defense (DoD) will determine if you qualify for transferability under the Post-9/11 GI Bill. You may be able to transfer all or part of your benefits to your spouse or dependent children. Benefits can be transferred to more than one person as long as the combined total does not exceed 36 months.

Minimum Eligibility: Individuals must serve on active duty for at least 90 aggregate days after September 10, 2001 to receive a percentage of maximum benefits payable. For current information, visit:

www.gibill.va.gov/

Education Benefits for Active-Duty Soldiers

Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB): The MGIB is designed to help you pay for your college education. Depending on how long you enlist with the Army and the job you choose, you could get more than $50,000 to help pay for college. All you have to do is give $100 a month during your first year of service.

College Loan Repayment Program: The Loan Repayment Program (LRP) is a special enlistment incentive offered to qualified applicants at the time of enlistment. Under the LRP, the Army will repay one-third of your loan for each year of full-time duty served.

Tuition Assistance (TA): The Army will pay 100% of the cost of tuition and expenses up to a maximum of $250 per credit hour; whichever is less, with an annual ceiling of $4,500. This rate is for undergraduate and graduate courses, and applies whether instruction is delivered traditionally or through distance learning.

Education Benefits for Army Reserve Soldiers

Selected Reserve Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB): As a Soldier in the Army Reserve, you can take advantage of the Montgomery GI Bill as a way to pay for a college education. Depending on how long you enlist, you can get up to $12,132 to help pay for college. See your Army Reserve recruiter for full details.

Army Reserve MGIB “Kicker”: You can add up to $687 per month to your MGIB for up to 36 months with the “Kicker.” “Kicker” amounts vary with job and rank, and certain rules apply for eligibility. See your Army Reserve recruiter for full details.

College Loan Repayment Program: Pay off your student loans more easily with the Army’s College Loan Repayment Program. To take advantage of this program you must enlist in the Army Reserve for six years. Speak with an Army Reserve recruiter to get the full details on the program.

Tuition Assistance (TA) for Reservists: Tuition Assistance for Reservists is the same as for active-duty soldiers.

Army Values

Many people know what the words Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity, and Personal Courage mean. But, how often do you see someone actually live up to them? Soldiers learn these values in detail during Basic Combat Training (BCT). From then on, they live them every day in everything they do — whether they're on the job or off. In short, the Seven Core Army Values listed below are what being a Soldier is all about.

- Loyalty: Bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution, the Army, your unit, and other Soldiers.
- Duty: Fulfill your obligations.
- Respect: Treat people as they should be treated.
- Selfless-Service: Put the welfare of the Nation, the Army, and your subordinates before your own.
- Honor: Live up to Army values.
- Integrity: Do what is right, legally and morally.
- Personal Courage: Face fear, danger, or adversity (physical or moral).

Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges

SOC is a civilian-military partnership that includes 15 national higher education associations, more than 1,900 colleges and universities, the Department of Defense, and the Military Services including the Coast Guard. SOC Consortium member institutions agree to abide by four criteria in recognizing the special conditions confronting military students. These criteria are:

1. Design transfer practices for servicemembers to minimize credit loss and avoid course duplication
2. Limit academic residency requirement for active-duty servicemembers to no more than 25 percent of the undergraduate degree program, with courses taken at any time during the program of study. Do not require final-year or final-semester residency. Note—Institutions joining the SOC Consortium primarily to participate in ConAP are exempt from this criterion. Reason: ConAP students entering college after military service are no longer on active duty. Veterans live in the community and can meet academic residency requirements.
3. Award appropriate credit for military training and consider credit for occupational experience.
4. Award appropriate credit for learning in extra-institutional settings, to include nationally-recognized testing programs.

For veterans or reservists who are beginning or continuing study, SOC Consortium institutions evaluate military courses, experience, and college courses already taken and award credit as appropriate to the degree program.

College Opportunities While on Active Duty

Every Army post has an education center with counselors and college representatives. New Soldiers visit their education centers to discuss education goals and plans. Some opportunities to begin or continue college are listed below. SOCAD stands for SOC Army Degrees. See:

<http://www.soc.aascu.org/socad/>

- SOCAD Colleges. A select group of colleges that give students a one-time evaluation of all prior learning experiences, college credit for Army schools and MOSs, a complete degree plan and a home college to award the degree. Approximately 160 SOCAD colleges provide over 300 two-year and 280 four-year degree options. Course transfer is guaranteed for specific courses to and from other SOC Degree Network System and SOCAD colleges.
- SOCAD Army Career Degrees. A group of colleges that translate Army training into college credit to create MOS-related college degrees. Career Degrees exist for 21 CMFs and 95 MOSs. Army Career Degrees are offered through distance learning.
- GoArmyEd.com. A Web-based portal used by Soldiers to apply to and enroll in two-year, four-year, certificate and graduate programs; enroll in classes; and apply for Tuition Assistance.
